NET LIQUIDATION

THE DAY IN REVIEW

The desk closed with conviction on four core names: ABBV, CI, META, and VZ all rated 7/10, with CAT also commanding attention at 6/10. We initiated buys on ABBV, CI, and META while taking a contrarian sell on VZ, reflecting mixed market sentiment despite strong conviction levels across the board. Options activity remains robust with thirteen picks deployed, anchored by high-conviction debit spreads in AMAT and MU (both 8/10 bullish), alongside a balanced bearish stance on ADBE and MCD put spreads. The book continues to filter noise with multiple don't-trade flags on low-conviction options names.

Fund positioning reflects modest headwinds today: the Conservative and Options Books both declined 1.5%, while the Balanced Fund slipped 1.8%. The Aggressive Fund remains the bright spot at +1.3, providing some offset. Total net liquidity stands at $396,579 across 39 open positions. Unrealized losses in the Conservative and Options Books are modest at roughly $1,500 each, while the Aggressive Fund carries $4,698 in unrealized gains. The portfolio remains well-balanced with no concentration risk, though near-term volatility warrants close monitoring.
