NET LIQUIDATION

THE DAY IN REVIEW

The desk ran eleven stock decisions today with conviction concentrated in five names at 7/10 conviction levels: ABBV, CI, META, MU, and VZ. We initiated buys on ABBV, CI, and META while establishing a sell on VZ, reflecting confidence in healthcare and tech growth against telecom headwinds. Several high-conviction options were appropriately flagged as don't-trade, preserving dry powder. The options book was active with fifteen picks, heavily favoring bullish debit call spreads across semis and industrials (AMAT, CAT, GE, GLW, KLAC, MRVL, INTC) at 7-8/10 conviction, balanced by a bearish ADBE put spread and MCD long put.

Across the fund complex, total net liquidity stands at $396K with mixed performance. The Aggressive Fund led at +1.2% with $4.6K unrealized gains across eight positions, while the Balanced Fund held nearly flat at -1.1%. Conservative and Options books both printed modest losses around -1.8% to -1.9%, with 14 open positions each. All accounts remain fully deployed with 41 total positions; the slight underwater marks on Conservative and Options reflect normal intraday volatility and the conviction-driven stance on semis and industrials positioning us for continuation.
